bakery showcase 2010

To keep your business successful, it's important to stay on top of what is happening in the baking industry. Bakery Showcase 2010 provides a host of opportunities to source new suppliers, discover new trends and products through the always popular and expanded new product showcase and exhibits.

NEW PRODUCT SHOWCASE

(Free for all Attendees!)

Looking for the latest products, ingredients, equipment, technology and/or services? Let the New Product Showcase, which features multimedia presentations by Showcase exhibitors be one of the first steps in your quest for information. Check out the companies listed in the New Product Showcase Program provided separately.

THREE DAYS OF TRADE SHOW

With more than 100,000 sq ft of exhibits, the trade show floor is the place to be to see the products in action and meet the people behind them. For just three days you will have the opportunity to be face-to-face with the people who truly understand your business.

Visit the trade show floor to see unlimited possibilities in ingredients, equipment, services, technology, baked goods (fresh, proof & bake, par-baked, freezer-to-oven, thaw & serve) and much, much more!

DECORATIVE BREAD CONTEST — produced by BAC's Ontario Chapter

Decorative bread has a long rich history and is currently enjoying a comeback amongst bakers. This year's competition features both professional and student competitions and a total of $9,000 in prize money. Participate as a competitor or just come and see what others have created.

NEW CANADA'S NATIONAL WEDDING CAKE COMPETITION

Artistry is the cornerstone of the baking industry and while featured in many ways it is best highlighted through the creativity of wedding cakes. Canada's National Wedding Cake Competition will bring together both professional and student wedding cake designers from across the country. In addition to $8,000 in prize money competitors will also be competing for national bragging rights.
